

ATFP Subject Matter Expert

Job Title: Antiterrorism Force Protection (ATFP) Subject Matter Expert

Location of Work: Virginia Beach/Norfolk, VA

Supported Organization: US Fleet Forces

Duration: 1 year, plus option years

Description:

Job Description:

ATFP program and operational sustainment support services to Commander, U.S. Fleet Forces Antiterrorism Directorate N042 in policy and doctrine development, strategic planning analysis, Limited Objective Experiment management, antiterrorism exercise planning, qualification and course of instruction revision and development, and nuclear strategic asset security. Task area support include:

- Hostile Intent Determination
- Non-Lethal Weapons
- Antiterrorism Exercise Planning
- Nuclear Weapons Security Programs
- Defense Critical Infrastructure Program
- Conference Planning
- Antiterrorism Warfare Improvement Program
- Small Arms Training

General Experience:

- Flag level staff planning and management experience.
- Bachelor's Degree required or five (5) years equivalency in program management, ATFP, and law enforcement as a military officer or senior non-commissioned officer (NCO).
- Experience in doctrine, organization, training, material, logistics, personnel or facilities analysis and application to the ATFP program.
- Experience in defining and facilitating ATFP strategic planning strategies and processes as applied to ATFP programs and requirements.

Specialized Experience:

- Past successful experience in Antiterrorism Program Management.
- Planning, briefing, execution, management, scenario development, and evaluation of CONUS wide annual antiterrorism exercises.
- Knowledge and experience in Maritime Operations Center, Regional Operations Centers and Installation Emergency Operation Centers command and control processes.

Clearance Level: Secret Clearance

Apply Here

(Or send your resume to resume@prevailance.com)